PREFACE.

THE Proprietors of the Social Law Library, in Boston, held their first meeting to organize themselves as a corporation, on the 23d of April, 1804. The request for the meeting was signed by Theophilus Parsons, Daniel Davis, John Phillips, William Sullivan, Charles Jackson, and Warren Dutton.

Since the year in which the Society was formed, annual meetings of the proprietors have been regularly held, and officers chosen, with the exception of two or three years. In 1814, they obtained an Act of Incorporation, a copy of which, with the By-laws which were afterwards adopted, are inserted in this volume, followed by a list of the officers of the Society from its formation to the present time.

For many years the Library, being but small, was kept in the office of a member of the Bar, who acted as librarian, and subsequently it occupied a closet adjoining a large room in the Court House, then used for meetings of the Grand Jury. At a later period the whole room was devoted to the Library, to which, when the new Court House was built, a spacious apartment was appropriated, in which it has since been kept.

A Catalogue of the Library was printed in 1824. At that time the number of volumes was 1473, it is now 4077. A large number of the books, including some of the most valuable, were presented by the Hon. Charles Jackson. The proprietors are also indebted for donations to other gentlemen. The names of the donors are given under the titles of the works presented by them.

The present Catalogue has been made from an examination of the title-pages of all the books, and the separate works contained in the Thesauri of Meerman and Otto, which those who use the Library have heretofore seldom consulted, as they had no means of referring to them conveniently. A general analytical Index has been added to the Catalogue, which it is believed will be of great advantage, especially to the younger members of the profession.

Those who planned, and those who have sustained the Library, have reason to be pleased with the success of their exertions. Its growth has been as rapid as could reasonably have been anticipated, and as it has increased, its great public utility has been more and more appreciated. Its advantages are not confined to the bar of Suffolk, but it is constantly and freely used by gentlemen of the profession from all the other counties in the State, by the Judges of our Courts, members of the Legislature, and Judges and Jurists from all parts of the United States.

Still, it must be confessed that, though in some departments of the law the collection is tolerably complete, it is in others very deficient. The income from assessments and from the funds of the Society, is scarcely sufficient to purchase the annually increasing American and English Reports, Digests, and Treatises, and does not enable the proprietors to procure many works on the Civil Law, the Scotch Law, the Laws of Continental Europe, and on other subjects connected with jurisprudence, which it is desirable to have in the Law Library of the principal city of New England.

Under these circumstances it may not be improper to suggest to those who may have occasion to use this Catalogue, the importance of increasing the Library; and to those members of the Bar in this county who have not yet purchased shares, the advantages which will result from their becoming proprietors.

AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE PROPRIETORS OF THE SOCIAL LAW LIBRARY.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That William Prescott and Joseph Hall, together with their associates, being the Proprietors of a certain Library called and known by the name of the Social Law Library, in the town of Boston, and such other person or persons, as shall hereafter be admitted members of said Association, according to the rules, orders and conditions, which shall or may from time to time be established by the bye-laws and regulations of the Corporation herein after created, shall forever hereafter be, and they are hereby created a body politic and corporate, by the name of The Proprietors of the Social Law Library; and by the said name shall sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in all or any Court or Courts of law, or elsewhere, in all manner of actions, suits, pleas, or controversies whatsoever; and in their said corporate capacity, by their said name, they and their successors shall be capable to purchase, receive, have, hold, take, and enjoy, in fee simple, or otherwise, lands, rents, tenements, and hereditaments; and likewise to take, receive, and hold by donation, subscription, bequest, or otherwise, money, goods, chattels, and personal property, and the same to give, grant, sell, and dispose of at their pleasure, so that the real and personal estate aforesaid, and the income and proceeds thereof, shall at all times be appropriated to the purposes of creating, enlarging, managing, and improving said Library; provided nevertheless, that the said Corporation shall at no time have or hold lands, rents, tenements, or hereditaments, for any other purpose than shall be necessary for the safe keeping and suitable accommodations of said Library, not exceeding in value twenty thousand dollars; and the said Corporation shall have power to have and use a common seal, and to alter, change, and renew the same, whenever they shall think the same expedient.

Persons incorporated.

Proviso.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said Corporation shall have full power and authority, to determine at what times and places their meetings shall be holden; and on the manner of notifying the associates or proprietors to convene at such meetings; and they shall have power to order and lay assessments upon the proprietors; to elect, once in every year, or oftener, from amongst the said proprietors, such officers, with such powers as they may think expedient; and also to ordain and enact any bye-laws for the due and orderly government of said Corporation, and for conducting the affairs thereof, and for, and concerning all matters and things relating to said Corporation, and the same, at pleasure, to alter, amend, and repeal; Provided That such powers vested, and bye-laws enacted, shall not be repugnant to the Constitution and laws of this Commonwealth. Proviso.

Times and places of meeting.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That for the purpose of giving a more effectual sanction to said bye-laws, the said proprietors shall have power to impose fines, not exceeding five dollars, for the non-fulfilment or breach of the said bye-laws; and that for the recovery thereof, the said Corporation shall have a suitable remedy by action at law, in any Court within this Commonwealth proper to try the same. And the said Corporation shall have further power to suspend the right of any proprietor to the use of the said Library, as a penalty for the breach of said bye-laws, or any of them; and likewise to sue for, and recover, any assessment duly imposed on the proprietors. Fines.

Sec. 4. Be it further enacted, That the right, interest, and property, which each of the said proprietors and associates shall be deemed and taken to have in said Corporation, shall be the use and benefit of the said Library, according to the rules and regulations established by the bye-laws of the said Corporation, for, and during the term of his natural life; but the said shares shall be, and hereby are declared to be, not alienable or transferable. Proprietor's right.

Sec. 5. Be it further enacted, That the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and the Members of the Council of this Commonwealth, at all times, and the Members of the Senate, and House of Representatives, during any session of the General Court, shall have free access to, and the full and entire use and enjoyment of the said Library, and all the privileges and advantages thereof, free of expense, under the same regulations as may be provided by the bye-laws of the said Corporation, for the proprietors thereof; and the Judges of the Supreme Judicial Court, and of all the Judicial Courts of the County of Suffolk, and of the Courts of the United States, together with the Attorney General, and Solicitor General, and the Reporter of the Judicial Decisions of the Supreme Judicial Courts of this Commonwealth, and the Attorney of the United States for the District of Massachusetts, shall at all times, under the like regulations, have free access to, and the free use and enjoyment of the said Library, free of any expense. Gov. &c. may have access to library.

Sec. 6. Be it further enacted, That for the purpose of enabling said Corporation to enlarge, increase, improve, and manage said Library, and to effect the laudable objects contemplated by said Corporation, there be, and hereby are granted and appropriated to said Corporation, all sums of money, which may be hereafter paid by way of tax or excise, by all persons admitted to practise as Attorneys, in the Boston Court of Common Pleas, in the County of Suffolk; and the County Treasurer for the County of Suffolk, is hereby authorized and directed to account with, and pay over to the Treasurer of the said Corporation, or any other officer or officers, person or persons, duly authorized by said Corporation, to receive the same, the moneys aforesaid, hereby granted and appropriated.

Money appropriated for increasing library.

Sec. 7. But whereas doubts have arisen, whether the tax or excise, by law payable by attorneys, on admission to the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, be extended to the Boston Court of Common Pleas, Be it therefore further enacted, That every person admitted as an Attorney to the Boston Court of Common Pleas, be required to pay to the Treasurer of the County of Suffolk, the same sum which is by law payable in other Counties, on admission to the Circuit Court of Common Pleas, and procure and produce to the Court, said County Treasurer's receipt therefor.

Attorney to pay treasurer.

Sec. 8. Be it further enacted, That there be granted and appropriated to said Corporation, one copy of the general and special Laws and Resolves of this Commonwealth, of the Ancient Charters, of the Massachusetts Reports, and of the Laws of the United States, now on hand, to be delivered by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the Librarian of the said Corporation, or other person authorized to receive the same; and the said Secretary is in like manner authorized to deliver to such Librarian or other person two copies of such Laws, Resolves, public documents, and reports, as may be hereafter published, or procured for the use of the Commonwealth, to be preserved in said Library.

Sec'y to furnish Library with Laws, &c.

Sec. 9. Be it further enacted, That the said William Prescott, and Joseph Hall, or either of them, shall have power to call the first meeting of said Corporation, by advertising the same, seven days at least, before the day of such meeting, in some newspaper, printed in the town of Boston, at which meeting the said proprietors may proceed to execute any, or all the powers vested in them by this act.

May call meeting.

[Approved by the Governor, October 21, 1814.]

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I. The Annual Meeting of the Proprietors shall be holden on the third Wednesday of October in each year, of which public notice shall be given by the Clerk, by advertising the same four days previously thereto, in one of the newspapers printed in Boston.

ART. II. At the Annual Meeting, the Proprietors shall choose a President, five Trustees, a Treasurer, and a Clerk, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until others are chosen. The President or any two of the Trustees may call special meetings of the Proprietors whenever they shall think it necessary. The Clerk shall give notice of all meetings by leaving a notification at the office of each Proprietor the day before the meeting.

ART. III. The Treasurer, before he enters on the duties of his office, shall give bonds to the Corporation, to the satisfaction of the Trustees, conditioned faithfully to account for all moneys which may come to his hands, and faithfully to perform the duties of his office.

ART. IV. At each Annual Meeting, a Committee shall be chosen to audit and examine the Treasurer's accounts, and it shall be the duty of the Treasurer not to pay any charge for books purchased unless the correctness of such charge be certified by two at least of the Trustees, nor unless the Librarian or some one of the Trustees shall certify that such book has been actually received into the Library.

ART. V. The President and Trustees shall superintend the interests of the Society. They shall appoint a Librarian, and establish his salary, direct what books shall be purchased, and make such regulations for the order, arrangement, and preservation of the books, as they shall from time to time deem necessary. They may admit new Proprietors to the privileges of the Library at a rate not less than $25 a share. They may also admit annual subscribers, and shall determine and order at what times the Library shall be open. It shall be their duty, on the first Mondays of January, April, July, and October, to examine the condition of the books, and cause a search to be made for those which are missing, and make report thereof to the Proprietors at their next meeting.

Art. VI. The Proprietors may from time to time impose assessments on the shares, for the purchase of books or the discharge of the incidental expenses of the Society; provided, however, that no assessments shall be binding, unless twenty Proprietors, at least, shall be present and vote at the meeting. And whenever it is intended to vote an assessment, the Clerk shall give notice thereof in the notification directed in the second article.

Art. VII. The Annual Assessment payable by the Proprietors shall be five dollars; and the Annual Subscription paid by others who use the Library shall be eight dollars. But the members of the Bar of other Counties, (except those who usually practice at the Suffolk Bar,) shall have the privilege of consulting the books of the Library at all times without expense.

Art. VIII. The Librarian shall keep the Library open at such stated times as shall be prescribed by the Trustees. He shall be answerable for the safety of all the books.

Art. IX. Each Proprietor may take out of the Library one book at one time, for a term not exceeding twenty-four hours, provided he shall leave with the Librarian an accountable receipt for the same; but he shall not take any book out during the law term of the Supreme Judicial Court, when the full bench is in session. And provided further, that any Proprietor who shall take any book without leaving such receipt, shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars; and any Proprietor who shall not return a book taken from the Library within the time limited shall forfeit and pay the sum of one dollar for each and every day that he shall detain it beyond the time limited.
